

Declaration of Consent

As a major Executive Search Consultancy we process personal data exclusively according to the national and international data protection laws. According to those laws a written compliance of the relevant party is necessary in order to store and process her/his personal data.

By signing this declaration you give your approval that the t2s-HW-Int. gathers your personal data and stores it in folders as well as in a database and processes it under compliance with possible log flags. The data is used solely for the execution of executive search assignments and other activities that go along with those mandates. Your data will only be accessible by the employees of the t2s-HW-Int., by maintaining the highest standard of confidentiality.

t2s-HW-Int. will forward your data (including your documents) only to the client but not to any third party. In particular t2s-HW-Int. will not forward your data to other executive search consultancies.

You have the right to request information about the stored information. In case that your data is out of date or invalid, you have the right to get your records updated and corrected. With this declaration you affirm that the details in the documents that you have put at our disposal are accurate.

You agree that t2s-HW-Int. obtains and processes confidential information and references, in particular about your education, your curriculum and your membership in organisations, associations or other institutions.

At your written demand t2s-HW-Int. will not contact you any further, will stop using your data and delete all information that have to do with your person.